This matter comes before the Court on pro se Plaintiff's "Judgement & Summary." Dkt. # 10. To the extent this document is a motion for summary judgment, it patently lacks merit. Notably, Plaintiff did not submit any evidence in support of any

1 motion. Defendants filed an opposition to the motion. Dkt. # 13. Plaintiff filed what 2 appear to be two “amendments” to the “Judgement & Summary.” Dkt. ## 14 & 16. But 3 neither document appears to reply to Defendants’ arguments; nor do they otherwise 4 provide a basis for granting summary judgment in Plaintiff’s favor. Accordingly, to the 5 extent that Dkt. # 10 is a motion for summary judgment, the Court DENIES it.
